A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth
Are easily obtained by cleansing your teeth daily with that justly popular dentifrice, SOZODONT. Composed of rare antiseptic herbs, it imparts whiteness to the teeth, a delicious aroma to the breath, and preserves intact from youth to old age, the teeth. Acidity of the stomach will destroy the strongest teeth unless its effects are counteracted with SOZODONT, and this pure tooth-wash protects the dental surfaces by removing every impurity that adheres to them. Ask your druggist for SOZODONT.

SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $100 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genital-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation Free. Thorough examination and advice $5.

THE IRI-H VOTE.

For some reason or other Irishmen seem bound body and vote to the Democratic party. The New York Tablet, a leading Catholic paper, speaking on this point, says: "It is in many respects unfortunate for the Irish, both in a social and political point of view, that they have so closely allied themselves to one political organization. They have been so wedded to the Democratic party that their support is looked upon as certain, and, therefore, they are treated with little consideration when it comes to make up the ticket. In local offices Irish citizens are fairly represented; but when it comes to State or national matters the idea of giving an Irishman or a Catholic a place on the ticket is sneered down by the Democratic leaders. If Irishmen hold their own in municipal offices, it is simply owing to the fact that by their votes they can control local elections, and, therefore, cannot be totally ignored. As an indication of how deeply seated is this prejudice, even in the Democratic party, against us, though the Irish vote in this city is about one-half of the whole Democratic vote, still, if the name of the most worthy Irish-American citizen is mentioned for the office of Mayor, it is at once quashed, on the ground that he will not be supported, simply because he was of Irish descent and bore an Irish name; and should he be a Roman Catholic, there is no chance for him at all. Should Charles O'Connor, or some other equally eminent Irish-American Catholic be put in nomination for the mayoralty, these very Democratic leaders who look upon the Irish as the tail of their political kite would combine in secret and vote for a Republican in preference to him. Have we not several instances of this? Have not our Irish-American citizens been subjected to unjust discriminations by the Democratic party? For example, in New York, the great stronghold of Democracy, no citizen of Irish birth has ever been permitted to fill the position of Governor, Mayor, Collector of the Port, or Postmaster under Democratic administrations, and only a few years since, when that able and pure man, Francis Kernan, was nominated for Governor of the State of New York, his name was scratched by sixty thousand Democrats, simply because he was of Irish descent and a Roman Catholic. In a political sense, the Democratic party owes us everything, the Republicans nothing; yet, it all truthfulness, it must be said that we have got a deeper recognition from the latter than the former. When the Republicans give nominations and office to Irishmen, they do so as a reward of merit and respectability, while the Democratic leaders, regardless of moral or social standing of parties, are influenced in their choice solely by the nominee's power in controlling the votes of the barroom, or rowdy element. If we go through the government offices in Washington, or the Postoffice and Custom House in New York, we will find that a large percentage of the officials and employees are Irish, and that they are all men of education, sobriety and intelligence. As an instance of the liberality of the Republicans towards the Irish-American, we mention the following appointments: Thomas Murphy and C. A. Arthur, both Irish-Americans, appointed Collectors of the Port of New York by President Grant; James Kelly, appointed Postmaster of New York by President Lincoln; General Patrick H. Jones, appointed to the same office by President Grant; Colonel Richard Crowley, appointed District Attorney for Northern New York by President Grant; Colonel James McLean, appointed Postmaster of Brooklyn by President Hayes; General J. B. Carr, elected Secretary of the State of New York. Whilst firmly holding that the recognition of any nationality should never be permitted to interfere with the constitution or the rights of Americans, we are of the opinion that independence of action and good organization are necessary among our Irish fellow citizens, in order to secure the influence and privileges to which they are entitled. The Germans are consolidated by societies, and are less subject than the Irish to party influences. They are just as ready to vote for a Republican as a Democrat. If his record entitles him to their support. On this account their friendship is courted by both parties, and their influence is such that they have not only elected their own countrymen to the highest offices in the State, but have also a native born German in the Cabinet at Washington. If the Irish were more independent of party, and showed more respect for themselves by supporting good and worthy candidates for office, no matter by whom nominated, in preference to political hacks and professional politicians, they would soon command influence and respect with both parties.

NO DISCRIMINATION.

"Every Republican in Washoe should vote for the Republican legislative ticket, and it would not be a bad idea for those Democrats who are deeply interested in the success of our local affairs to do the same thing."—Journal.

If the above means, as some say it does, that everything else on the ticket is to be traded off for the legislative ticket, we object. If any one chooses to vote for the opposition candidate for Sheriff or Assessor, he must be the judge. If he believes it for the best interest of the county it is his duty to do so. But if some vain ass on the legislative ticket wants a big vote and trades his vote and that of his friends for other offices to get votes in return for himself, then we say all who are concerned in the transaction are doing a wrong, and one that will not go unpunished. If our candidates are as good as the Democratic candidates, why should we beat them? Why should we elect Walker and beat Berry? Why should Smith get Republican votes in exchange for Dawson or Frank Bell getting Democratic ones? If men go in to politics let them go honest with each other there as elsewhere. If a man supports one side openly let him do it secretly as well. We say nothing against the Democratic candidates. If any one believes the county is better off in their hands let him vote for them, but if he is a Republican and believes the Republican candidates are good fair men, why should he not give them his vote. Let us stand by our guns, and if we win or lose we will be respected a great deal more by the whole Democratic party than if we truckle and trade.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A sea serpent has been caught at last. On Tuesday last some Indians brought to Victoria, British Columbia, a monster described as follows: "A genuine sea serpent with the orthodox mane, a head-shaped like a panther, and the tail whittled down to a sharp point, was brought in by some Indians yesterday. It was caught in deep water in the Straits of De Haro. Its appearance creates intense interest among the savants, and the oldest fishermen cannot place the monster. The serpent has been photographed, and the body will be preserved in spirits and sent to Ottawa for classification."

W. H. English should have a large personal following in Chicago. He was a rich banker, when, after the great fire of 1871, he was called upon for aid. He subscribed and paid $1. The Relief Committee thought this sum too large for any one man to give, and returned it to him.

In consequence of the unwise restrictions laid upon banking by the new Constitution, another California bank has reduced its capital. The capital of the London and San Francisco Bank has been cut down from $800,000, to $420,000, it having been found impossible to use profitably the whole of the larger sum.

There are so many marriages of convenience nowadays, that the only safe course for a young man seems to be to marry a rich girl. Then he can feel assured that she marries him for his worth alone, and not for a home.

A Kansas man does not believe the Benders were lynched. He has taken great interest in the family, one of his brothers having been Bended in 1873, and his opinion is entitled to some weight.

The California Legislature passed a law prohibiting bakers from doing business on Sunday. The Supreme Court has just declared it unconstitutional, on the grounds that it was special legislation.

Wells Drury has sold out the Stage to a number of printers. The Stage is now a Democratic sheet.

President Hayes leaves Chico this evening for Oregon. He will not attend the Nevada State Fair.

A Philadelphia woman has been made insane by a spider's bite.

An Indian runner arrived at Santa Fe Sunday at noon from Tucson. He left that place at 1 o'clock on Saturday night, making the trip on foot in fourteen hours. The distance is sixty miles, and in a rough country, too.

No Collusion With Sharon.
 Hon. Thos. Wren writes as follows to the Black Leader under date of the 21st:
 My attention was called to-day to an article in the Carson Appeal, in which it is stated, amongst other things, that it is rumored that "Mr. Wren is in the field, not with any intention of securing the prize, but for the purpose of bringing in a delegation from Eureka whose strength, at the proper time, can be thrown for Wm. Sharon." In reply permit me to say that I have no combination or understanding with Mr. Sharon or any other candidate for United States Senator. No word or line has ever passed, directly or indirectly, between Mr. Sharon or any other candidate on the subject. My invariable reply to all who have approached me on the subject of combinations has been that under no circumstances would I form any with anyone; that I should endeavor to secure a legislative delegation from Eureka earnestly in my favor, and that all other candidates would have to take their chance of securing their votes in case I could not be elected. I was never more in earnest in my life than I am now in my efforts to secure a seat in the United States Senate. I shall remain a candidate as long as there is any hope of my election.

The Artlessness of Childhood.

A little boy visited his uncle on his birthday and congratulated him. He then asked his uncle if he had washed himself.
 "Why so?" asked the uncle, patting the little prattler on the head.
 "Because papa said if you did the clean thing you would give me a dollar, at least."

In pulling forth a handkerchief to flirt with a girl at a concert, a Bodie young man dragged out a flask of whiskey which fell to the floor. This spoiled the effect.

Stop That Cough.
 With a sample bottle of Kaiser's German Elixir. This is the most wonderful cough remedy ever introduced, being mild, yet positive in its action and soothing under all circumstances. Old and young may use it with perfect security. It is rich in the medicinal properties of tar, wild cherry and honey. Ask your druggist, Messrs. Osburn & Shoe maker, about its merits. They sell large quantities of it and say it supercedes all others. The genuine bears the Prussian coat of arms and the facsimile signature of Dr. Kaiser on the wrapper and has his name blown in every 75 cent bottle. Samples 25 cent. Large size 75 cents. 1890-daw

We Challenge The World.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY PLATFORM.

The Democracy of Washoe county in convention assembled declare as follows:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Washoe county, endorse and reaffirm the principles enunciated in the platform of the National Convention at Cincinnati, in June last, and also our State Convention at Winnemucca, and hereby approve the lines of government there marked out.

Resolved, That we recognize in our candidate for Congress, the Hon. W. Cassidy, an able statesman and true gentleman, one who, as Senator in our Councils has always faithfully maintained our principles and labored for the best interests of our State, and we pledge that if elected, among his first legislative acts shall be to introduce such a measure as will make completely operative and effective the plank of the National Platform which demands the prohibition of Chinese immigration, and that we invite to the support of our candidates every voter of whatever political creed, who sincerely desires that our laboring classes may be forever relieved of the curse of Chinese competition, and cite to them the fact that relief can only come from a Democratic Congress, and a Democratic President.

Resolved, That in the person of Judge C. H. Belknap we have an eminent jurist, one that is tried and true, and we point with pride to his past record.

Resolved, That the Democratic party has always maintained that none but residents of Nevada should represent her in the National Council, and we denounce the practice inaugurated by Jones and followed by Sharon, of corrupting, by the free use of money, the elective franchise of a free people, and we call upon all Democrats and honest Republicans to come boldly forward and assist in wiping out this stain upon the fair name of our young and growing State.

BORN.

PE. M.—In Reno, Sept. 23, 1909, to the wife of E. H. Fock, a son.

JOTTINGS.

—Wild geese are flying south.
—The mountain fire seems to have decreased.

—A five-inch screw water pipe has been carried across the river.

—There will be a special meeting of the Athletic Club this evening at 9 o'clock.

—Budden has for sale a fine lot of photographs of Reno and the surrounding country.

—Some horses and cattle from Quincy for exhibition were expected at the fair grounds to-day.

—General Hagerman drove out this afternoon in a spic-and-span new brougham, with his face chestnut between the shafts.

—The crazyman found at the race track has been sent to Stockton by Judge King. His name is Henry Klunz. He declares himself the Son of God.

—The beautiful planet Venus again appears in the evening sky. She may be seen after sunset and until about 6 o'clock, flashing like a diamond, just above the rim of the Sierra.

—Meyerstein has returned from San Francisco with an immense stock of goods. He has filled the shelves, the cellar, the counters and every bit of his large store with fall and winter goods of every variety.

—The members of the recent Arctic expedition, in search of the remains of Sir John Franklin, suffered severely from the cold. This would not have been the case had they purchased their outfit from Abraham Bros., at the White House, next door to the Post-office, Reno.

—Horses brought from the great valley of California to the high regions of the Sierra are so much affected by the rarity of the air that they can do little work for several months. Men and women from the coast are frequently distressed in breathing the thin air about the mountain lakes.

—Matt Parrott reports game plentiful on the meadows. One gunner bagged 21 ducks in one day this week. Last Sunday Parrott got a good bag of ducks and snipe, and two stunks. When asked how he came to shoot two stunks, Parrott made the rather singular explanation: "The second one didn't stink." He didn't bag the stunks.

A Pleasant Thing to Read.

Four years ago, says the Eureka Leader, one of our business men loaned $75 to a poor fellow who was in a hard streak of luck. The man left town without returning the money, and nothing was heard of him until a few days since, when the business man referred to was agreeably surprised by receiving from him a letter containing a postal order for $125. He wrote that he had been by the pipes that his creditor was a heavy loser by the fire, and so he had forwarded the bid debt with fifty dollars interest.

TROOPS AT THE FAIR.

Why the Prizes for the Best Drilled Company Were Withdrawn—Disappointment in Carson.

The Carson papers of yesterday expressed great indignation because the Trustees of the Agricultural Society had, as they expressed it, "withdrawn the prize put up for the best drilled military company." The Carson papers are aggrieved because the Carson military companies have been drilling all summer, and were confident of victory.

The Carson papers are mistaken in this matter. The Trustees of the Society are not to blame. The first proposition to give a prize for the best drilled military company came from C. C. Stevenson of Gold Hill. He authorized the Society to offer a special premium for that purpose, of $100, as referred to in a letter from him under date of Sept. 21, of which the material portion reads as follows:

"I will attend the Fair, and will put up the $100 coin as a special premium for the best drilled military company, if there is competition."

In addition to the special premium of $100 offered by Mr. Stevenson, the Society agreed to give $150. It was hoped the military parade would make one of the pleasing features of the fair, until a few days ago the Trustees received the following letter:

Va. City, Sept. 20, 1880.
I am compelled to report being unable to procure six teams of ten each to contest for the prize so generously offered by you. As your offer was the best made this year, I was confident it would be accepted, but as only three companies appeared willing to send teams, I am unable to comply with the terms agreed upon, and informed the companies that I would report the facts, and decline your offer.
F. C. Lord.

As the withdrawal of the Comstock companies left the Carson company the only competitor, the Trustees had no option in the matter. Mr. Stevenson's special premium was offered with the express condition "if there be competition." The Trustees offered their premium of $150 on the same terms as Mr. Stevenson's prize. The Trustees will hold a special meeting this evening and see what can be done in the matter. They are anxious to do justice to all parties, and will do what is right.

The Quinn Case.

The evidence for the defence in the Quinn trial was all in to-day at noon. The witnesses called for Quinn were C. L. Bunsell, N. Nathan, A. J. Rowland, and J. J. Quinn. George Ingerson, L. L. and Benj. Jamison were this morning recalled in rebuttal. The defence endeavored to show that at the time of the assault, which is not disputed, Beemer made a motion as if to draw a pistol. Argument in the case commenced this afternoon, and a verdict will probably be reached before night. District Attorney Bowman and Judge Condit appear for the State. C. S. Varian and T. V. Julien for the Prisoner. The strongest argument introduced for the defence to-day was the beautiful little child of the prisoner, held in his arms in sight of the jury.

Orange Valley.

Three miles south-east from Rocklin, F. Birdall of the Lyon Mill and Mining Co., of Dayton, Nev., has put out an orchard of 31,000 orange trees, covering 200 acres of ground. This is the largest orchard in California and is thought to be larger than any in Florida or elsewhere. The trees were all set out since last March, and are from 4 to 7 years old. A good many had fruit on this year, but it could not be expected to be good for anything. The cost of the experiment has been over $25,000. Mr. Birdall owns the Bear River, Gold Hill and North Fork ditches. S. Washburn is superintendent of his Placer county property. The valley where the orchard has been set out has been named Orange Valley.

Democratic Assessments.

The Democratic County Central Committee met last evening and made the following assessments on candidates:

Senator, $100; Clerk, Sheriff and Auditor, each $175; District Attorney, $100; Constable, $100; Assemblymen, $50 each; County Commissioner (long term), $100; County Commissioner (short term), $50; Surveyor, $20; Superintendent of Schools, $10; Public Administrator, $10; Surveyor, $20. No assessments were levied on Justice of the Peace, Treasurer or Assessor.

Petty Theft at the Track.

Two tramps appeared on the race track yesterday noon, and while the men were eating their dinner, they entered one of the stables and stole a coat, several shirts, and two pair of drawers. The thieves were afterwards tracked as far as Mr. Norcroft's on the Virginia road, and probably continued travelling in that direction. They each appeared to be about 25 years old and looked rough.

Clot to Appear.

The Board of Equalization has ordered citations issued to the following, returnable on the 25th: Wm. Burk-meyer from $350 to $400 on real estate. Joseph Fellagle from a $25 to $100 on personal property. David McFarland from $1,150 to $2,500 on personal property. H. W. Roberts from $800 to $1,200 on personal property. First National Bank from $5,000 to $40,000 on personal property. J. J. Quinn from $500 to $2,000 on personal property.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Murdered and Burned.

SIERRA CITY, Sept. 23. Alfred Smith of this place, the reporter for the Associated Press, and an old resident of this county, was burned to death in his house some time during the night. His remains were found this morning among the ruins, with his skull seeming to have been crushed. Suspicion leads to the belief that a foul murder was done by some person, as indications show that there was a struggle in the room. A pistol lay by his right side.

Census Frauds in the South.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. Two of the special agents sent to South Carolina to investigate the alleged census frauds have returned and are now preparing their report to General Walker. The nature of their report it is impossible to learn, as General Walker forbids any intimation of it to be given until completed and submitted to the Secretary of the Interior. It is generally believed, however, that these agents have discovered frauds of a very serious character.

Indians Slapping an Agent.

DENISON, Texas, Sept. 23.—The Cheyenne Indians in Indian Territory are manifesting great discontent and are becoming disorderly. A few days ago a band of about 300, with war paint on and well mounted, visited the agency near Fort Reno and were very demonstrative and threatening and slapped the agent in the face. Another party is reported to have gone through the commissary store at Wichita Agency recently. The cause of the trouble is said to be insufficiency of food.

Indiana Still an October State.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 23. The Supreme Court to-day overruled the petition for a rehearing in the case involving the validity of the constitutional amendments, the vote standing the same as it did in the original case, Judges Niblock and Scott in favor of a rehearing, and Judges Biddle, Warren and Hawk against it.

Small-Pox in Canada.

OTTAWA, Sept. 23. A gentleman just returned from the Desert says fully 120 deaths have occurred from the small-pox. In one camp of sixteen persons all but one boy died. The Tette Boutes Indians are about extinct.

Chinese Fall in Massachusetts.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. The Daily News says: The experiment of running the Sampson Manufacturing Company's shoe shop at North Adams, Mass., with Chinese labor has proved a failure, and the last Celestial has departed for a more congenial field of labor.

Disturbances in China.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Serious disturbances are reported in Canton China. Europeans have been threatened and are in a state of alarm. The Catholic Mission has been attacked and the military have been called out. Several rioters were killed and wounded.

Entertainments Next Week.

No dramatic company is billed to appear here in Fair week. Manager Piper offered Hammond & Wilson $100 for the use of their theatre for one week, but they wouldn't let it for so small a sum. The theatre is engaged for next Wednesday and Thursday evenings by R. P. M. Greeley's brother, who will exhibit a series of panoramic views. On Friday evening there will be a ball, under the management of the proprietors of the theatre. Good music will be secured.

An Outrage on the Post Office.

A wall map, with rollers 9 feet 3 inches in length, arrived this morning. It was for Capt. Bragg and gave the lay of the land of the region in which the Lassen County Land and Flume Company are interested. The postal regulations limit the length of packages sent by mail to four feet, and it is a mystery how the map came to be forwarded. Lisle Jamiou denounces the transmission of such lengthy matter as an outrage on the postoffice.

The Northern Railroad.

Says the Susanville Review of Wednesday: E. V. Spencer starts for Reno to-day to aid the railroad company in laying out their route. He has been securing a right of way along the south side of Honey Lake and now goes to Reno to report. Mr. Spencer is doing all that is possible to bring the road to Susanville.

Special Train to the Fair Grounds.

A special train will run between Virginia, Carson and Reno during Fair week, commencing next Monday. The train will leave Virginia at 8:15 in the morning and arrive at the fair grounds at 11:10. Returning will leave the fair grounds at 5:25 p.m. and arrive in Virginia at 8:20.

At the Fair Grounds.

Active preparations are being made at the fair grounds. J. L. McFarlin has been spending much of his time out there for three weeks past, and has spared no pains to get the track in thorough order. It is pronounced in the best possible condition. Two watering carts are kept going over the course from four o'clock in the afternoon until midnight. Several men are employed to pick stones off the track. A harrow or cutter is dragged over the course every morning. The horses may be confidently expected to make as good time here this year as anywhere on the coast. A platform has been constructed at the railroad track, and a plank walk extending to the grounds.

To keep children from falling off the grand stand, McFarlin is having the front railing solidly boarded up. This improvement will stop the men from looking up from below to see the best things in history, and will therefore be a boon to the ladies, although it may possibly injure the sale of fancy hosiery in the dry goods stores next week.

The road leading from Virginia street to the track, and Virginia street itself for a good portion of the distance out to the track, have been kept constantly flooded with water for several days past, in order to effectually lay the dust.

Personal.

I. Fredrick is in San Francisco buying goods. Morris Ash is now "drumming" for a San Francisco business house. E. B. Giles returned from Bodie this morning. He reports times dull there. Chief Justice Baughy, who has been nominated for re-election on the Republican ticket, is in town. Col. Fair in a few days will give his friends an answer to the Senatorial proposition.

Fine Display of Flowers.

Capt. Flanagan, the Secretary of the Agricultural Society, says the floral display in the Pavilion next week will be very beautiful, eclipsing all previous exhibition of the kind here. There will be fine floral exhibits from Sacramento and from Virginia, in addition to the local displays. The flowers will be shown up stairs this year. A Virginia lady will show a fine lot of cut flowers, which will have their stems imbedded in a mixture of sawdust and salt. They can be kept fresh for a whole week in this way, she says.

The most popular and fragrant perfume of the day "HACKMETACK." Try it. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker, Druggists, Reno, Nevada.
